Your product launch is scheduled in two weeks from signup.

- Great ideas fail when one founder tries to do everything
 - Tech founders lack distribution;
 - Business founders lack “idea to market” speed
 - We solve this issue and create a Win-Win
 - Agencies don’t share risk or upside
 - Solution: An accurate AI-powered co-founder model — This is not outsourcing; we build your idea for us to launch as co-partners in 2 weeks.

How the 40 / 40 / 20 Partnership Works

In two weeks, we launch.

Tech Founder: AI-first architecture, build, scale, support: 40%

Based on the business idea, we collaborate to build the product.

Automation, hosting, and continuous evolution

Business Founder: Market validation, sales, partnerships, revenue: 40%

Business growth and sales

Operations: Platform, Finance, Legal, Compliance, Security, and advisory: 20%

Provide governance, security, legal, and enterprise services.

Cover basic hosting expenses and release funds monthly stakeholders.

Why This is a Win-Win
